

Things I can do in Korean

App 1: The Polyglots in the Playroom

I have been learning Korean using The Polyglots apps.

Here are some of the things I have discovered in App 1: The Polyglots in the Playroom:

I can sing the 'Hello' song in Korean

Doing sometimes with assistance	Beginning to do independently	Regularly doing confidently

I can say some simple greetings in Korean. For example:

안녕!	Annyeong!	Hello!
다음에 만나!	Da-eum-e manna!	See you later!
여보세요!	Yeoboseyo!	Hello! (on the phone)

I can introduce myself in Korean. For example:

내 이름은 (name) 이야.	Nae ireum-eun (name)-iya.	My name is (name). [for names ending in a consonant, eg Alex]
내 이름은 (name) 야.	Nae ireum-eun (name)-ya.	My name is (name). [for names ending in a vowel, eg Anna]
